estimate. On this July sold off to $1.1-2, where it closed.

Trading an corn was fairly good and prices during the greater part of the sension were steady held. When wheat took its final atomp own dropped size. Closed rather weak.

Provisions showed some spasmodic action at the opening and during the early part of the secsion, due to the limited offeriuse and somewhat steady prices prevalting at the wards. Closing orders again show a loss.

Estimates for tomorrow: Wheat, 17: corn, 210: oats, 200 case; hogg, 23.000 head.
